2016. PaperBack. Book Condition: New. 100 ABOUT THE BOOK:- It's a story of a medium class family boy who falls in love with a daughter of an I.R.S. officer during his collage studies at University of Lucknow. He wants to celebrate his fake birthday to show her pretty girl that he is in her levels .Though he has never celebrated it before. Even he does not remember his exact birthday. Destiny fevers him and he get close to her up to some extent. His friends tell him to expedite and he proposes her which destroys their relationship. He tries to forget her by all means and tries to concentrate on her studies to normalize his life. He always remembers his father's words to do well. On his second birthday miracle happens and he again gets his love back. But at the end something happens which can't be forgotten by a normal human mind and heart. ABOUT THE AUTHOR:- Your author belongs to a medium class family of District Azamgarh in U.P. I don't want to show off my designation here because I firmly believe that sometimes your life teaches you in a better way than your degree. I have gone through the various phases of my life which inspired me to write my emotions to express it to you. Everybody is affected by the different flavors of love at different ages. Some express and some enjoy hiding their own while listening others. Though it is a passing phase of every young mind but it makes such a deep impact on our mind that sometimes it's not possible to erase from our heart and mind. I believe in originality and my book is not away from it. The Title 'My Fake Birthday written by Alok Singh' was published in the year...
