Clerks should never be permitted to open letters addressed to officers or Sub-Assistants, nor to sign any documents for them by order or otherwise. 354. Officers are stricbly prohibited from having money or other dealings with their subordinates, or with other persons within their official range, if such transactions are of a nature to place the officer under an obligation to them incompatible with perfect independence of official action. 365. When an officer wishes to dispose of valuable property, such as houses, carriages, c, to native purchasers in the district in which he is employed, he will report his intention to the Superintendent, who will use his discretion in allowing the transaction. 366. If the officer is not about to quit the district, the orders of Government must be obtained. This applies equally to purchases of valuable property from natives. 367. Officers are at liberty, when quitting a station, to dispose of thoir furniture, c., by auction, or by circulating lists to the community generally. 368. No officer is allowed to hold or to acquire by purchase, bargain, mortgage, transfer, or by any means, directly or indirectly, any landed property or interest in any landed property within the district in which he may be employed; and if an officer holds or acquires such landed interests out of the...
