Not illustrated. 1873 edition. Excerpt: .Committee of Seventy collected from the whole community for similar purposes. BROADWAY BANK INVESTIGATIONS. These investigations furnished the first, and, for a long time, the only judicial proof of the frauds. They occupied me, and some four or five clerks and assistants, about ten days. The analysis of the results, and their application as proof, were made by myself; as well as the. original discovery of the relation of the numbers which was the clue to all the revelations. The Times seems to ascribe the collection of judicial proof to Mr. Booth s committee. This is an entire error. Nothing of the kind was attempted by that Committee. The value of their report was in its exhibition of the accounts of payments from the Comptroller s office. It did not trace any share of the money to any public ofiicer. That Mr. Booth was...
