

Liberalism and the Social Problem

By Winston Spencer Churchill

Book Jungle. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 208 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 7.4in. x 0.5in. Excerpt: . . . wanted here. He is here in answer to a perfectly well-defined demand. He is here as the result of economic causes which have been too long unregulated. He is not the natural product, he is an article manufactured, called into being, to suit the requirements, in the Prime Ministers telling phrase, of all industries at particular times and of particular industries at all times. I suppose no Department has more means of learning about these things than the Board of Trade, which is in friendly touch at every stage all over the country both with capital and labour. I publish that fact deliberately. I invite you to consider it, I want it to soak in. It appears to me that measures to check the growth and diminish the quantity of casual labour must be an essential part of any thorough or scientific attempt to deal with unemployment, and I would not proclaim this evil to you without having 203 reason to believe that practicable means exist by which it can be greatly diminished. If the first vicious condition which I have mentioned...
