You might think finding your calling is difficult, but it doesn't have to be that way. What if there was a simpler, more practical approach to discovering what it is you're meant to do in this world? Through personal experiences, biblical case studies and modern day examples, Andrew Gilmore gives you a step by step guide to uncovering how your unique passions, skills, and resources combine to allow you to live a life of fulfillment and excellence for the glory of God. In short: Under the Sun will show you how to live a life of purpose. Too many Christians are waiting for a burning bush or blinding light instead of proactively petitioning God. But waiting around eventually leads to apathy or angst. Stay in this funk for too long and you'll find yourself disillusioned with life. And, if left unresolved, disillusionment leads to anger and hopelessness—a dangerous...
