Economic Mind of God

By MR Peter Alexander Egom

Createspace, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.God, in Christian belief, is One in Essence but a Trinity of Persons and Activities. Thus, there is God the Father, the Creator; God the Son, the Redeemer and; God the Holy Spirit, the Sanctifier. And, coincidentally, any modern economy is a money-flows structure of three interdependent markets as follows: there is, first, the currency market where an economy's means of trade and payments is created and managed; second, is the financial market where an economy's sources and uses of savings are managed and; third, is the industrial market where an economy's means of trade and payments is used to distribute work and its social and material rewards among the people of an economy. So, when the Christian talks and does economics he must necessarily do so from the perspective of how God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit join Hands and Effort to, in tandem, manage the three markets of any modern economy into sustainable social and material well-being. This is what Trinitarian market economics is all about. It is...
